1. Ecomethodology:

1.1. Report Summary:

To arrive at the Ecumenic Creative Operations (https://bit.do/ecumenic-project) and its methodologic procedures and policies, as presented in our documentation (https://github.com/ecumenic/project), we develop a continuous database foundation through the analysis of our ecommunity of stakeholders (2.1), concearning world trends indicators ecoscenario (2.2), ecompliance charters (2.3), ecofunding opportunities (2.4), and reliable research ecodatabases (2.5). We also provide a hypertextual multimedia ecobibliography concearning the bases of our ethics (3.1), scientific methodology (3.2), pedagogy (3.3), faith-inspiration (3.4), artistic procedure (3.5), opera engineering (3.6), entrepeneurial management (3.7), rule-of-law jurisprudence (3.8), big-data informatics (3.9), and ecomuseologic curatorship (3.10) of our project's ecomuseology instructional program (https://bit.do/ecumenic-ecomuseology), and ecopoethics research (https://bit.do/ecumenic-ecopoethics).

1.2. Report Format:

In order to maintain its neutrality our report evades from analytic data-modelling or textual interpretativity from our part using verifiable data in a open-source on-progress brief on our research procedures. This catalogue was acquired and is updated through internet browser bookmarks organization with the folders becoming chapters through handicraft without any support from artificial intelligence nor deep-learning, respecting the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Each item in it is composed of internet hyperlinks, with their uniform resource locator (URL) invisible in printed versions, but that may be accessed through the open-source document (https://bit.do/ecumenic-ecosystem). They follow the naming standard as follows:

Source Of Information (Name Acronym) - Indicator Self-Explaining Title Preferably In English
