Responsible Creativity Modular Program

São Paulo Opera House And Its 'Operários' Builders
(2012)

1. Epigraph:

"The true Christian, being one who can accept that all are brothers, does not stop to enquire as to beliefs or opinions before offering to help. Would a Christian be obeying the precepts of Jesus Christ, Who told us to love our enemies, if he were to repel an unfortunate person just because they professed a different belief?" ~ Allan Kardec at The Gospel According To Spiritism, chapter XIII, paragraph 20.

"Paradise is the world of art (...) However, so that we may talk about Paradise, it is needed that all the arts be reunited, or better said, that everything becomes artistic." ~ Mokiiti Okada

"In ecumenism, radicalisms, hostilities of all shades must remain far removed from debates or propositions of religious, philosophical, political, scientific, economic, artistic, sporting and whatever else." ~ José de Paiva Netto at The Parliament Of Ecumenic Fraternity Foundation.

2. Dedication:

We would like to thank all the wonderful people devotedly in dignified works, wise words, subtle and sublime chants, through my personal expeditions. To all these respectful valorous workers and craftsmen, seekers gatherings, cinema sets staffs, artistic collectives, theatre and dance companies, indigenous tribes, street marketers, quilombos and riverside settlements, jail situation pregnant, experts in many branches of business, neurodiverse groups, jailers, psychonaut scholars, post-porn transqueers, homeless and landless movements, graffiti crews, semiotic multimedia researchers, fablabs, alzheimer bearers, seniors schools, physicians, carers, urban renewal parties organizations, free-software activists, broiderers, metarecycling initiatives, independent medias, farmers and drovers, street marketers, self-sustainable communes, human-rights awards, among other social well-being oriented people my sincere gratitude.

We also wouldn't be here without many humble anonymous spiritual masters from many peacebuilding goodwill art-fostering religions. Catholic, Candomble, Protestants, Umbanda, Spiritists, Messianic Johrei, Bhuddists, Theosophical Mysticism, Hinduism, Santo Daime, Shamanism, Taoism, Pentecostal Revivalism, among other ethic oriented churches. Through many hardships putting their congregations together under the blessings of God all around my path, I decided to pray with them, receive and spread blessings, and learn how they cope with our common social, micro and macro, problems with solidary creative solutions. And through this silent invisible congregations pilgrimage, while listening to many different personal and collective experiences of divine action in credent peoples life, I found faith and obedience to God and was inspired to connect my own laic and sacred cultures in an ecumenic discipline.
